“WHERE’S MY RISEZINE?”

Thank all of you in my RiseZine family for your kind inquiries asking, “Where’s My RiseZine?” It’s time let you know that I’m writing my book and I have a publishing goal of mid-to-late 2014. I have suspended writing the RiseZine newsletter while I simply “open my veins and bleed” as Hemmingway described the tedious task of writing a book.

You, my faithful subscribers, will be the first to be offered a copy of what I’ve currently titled, “Please Rise: Inspiration for the Trials in Your Life”.

As we head into 2014, I wish all of you a great holiday season and a prosperous New Year. I am having foot surgery in January and will be off the golf course and the ski slopes for a month (despite what Paul and Charles Smith urge, skiing is not happening again in this life). I will dedicate my time to writing.

I will continue to coach my clients, speak to selected groups, and officiate wedding ceremonies as I take this new journey. You have inspired, empowered and ignited me with your demonstration of love and appreciation for my work and “I’m so in love with you.” Thank you!

“Do just once what others say you can’t do, and you will never pay attention to their limitations again.” James R. Cook.
